TEXAS FORCE BASEBALL SIGNS ATHLETIC UNIFORM, APPAREL DEAL WITH UNDER ARMOUR

Highlight club deal connects Texas Force with global leader in athletic performance and innovation.

Texas Force Baseball has announced a uniform and apparel partnership with Under Armour, naming the global performance brand as the official outfitter for Texas Force Baseball and its teams, starting in 2020.

The agreement with Under Armour will allow Texas Force Baseball Club to provide Under Armour uniforms, apparel, gear and equipment for its complete roster of athletes, coaches and staff. It's a tremendous opportunity for Texas Force to be associated with a leading global brand and furthers the school's continued focus on making all athletes better through passion, design and the relentless pursuit of innovation.

The uniform and apparel agreement with Under Armour will last for three years, and the affiliation will debut with the first game of the baseball season in February 2021. For Under Armour, this partnership with Texas Force is yet another example of the company's commitment to club athletics across the country. Whether with myriad of school sponsorships or All-America showcases in football, basketball, baseball, volleyball and lacrosse, the brand is committed to athletic development at every level—all while specializing in revolutionary gear that raises anyone's game.
